

Hey kids!

You can make a hero smile.

Our heroes serving overseas love to hear from young people - they like to post drawings and letters to share with everyone around! It's easy to do, too.

Write a letter

Tell them thanks, and write about your family, school, favorite things, and hobbies.

Draw a picture

Draw your home, family, or a patriotic picture - anything you want!

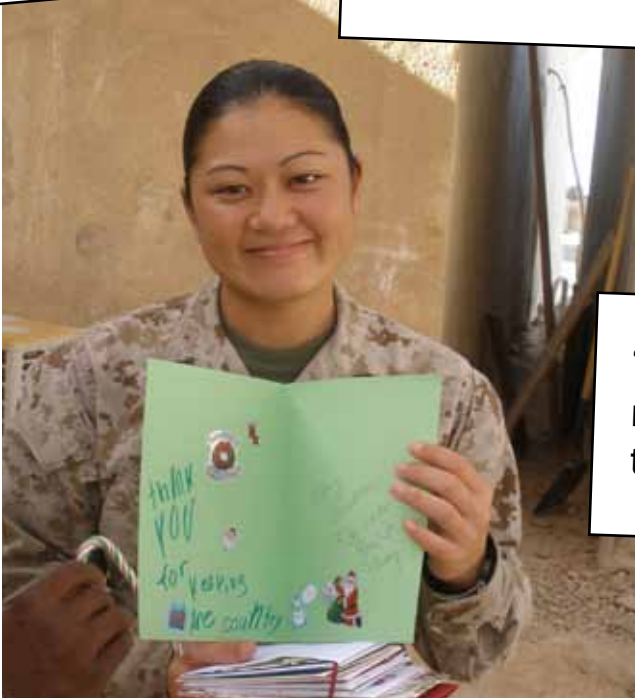

Color a picture

Download coloring pages from the internet, or tear a page out of a coloring book.

Make a card

Decorate it with stickers, stamps, and drawings, as well as a message inside!

Sign it with your first name and age. It's also fun to put your hometown on it!

If you would like to ask them to write back, put your school's or adult leader's address on the paper. Some of our heroes have time to write back, but they might be too busy.

Have an adult mail it to any shipper at: <http://operationwritehome.org/mailroom>

OPERATION WRITE HOME®

Operation Write Home® sends thousands of hand-crafted birthday, all-occasion, and holiday greeting cards for deployed heroes to write home on – along with packets of encouraging mail from home!
