The following two pages are the same except one is for churches, and says “pray”—if you’re holding a cardsigning with an audience that may be offended, use the other option.

Thank you for encouraging our heroes!

encourage a deployed warrior

Write a note to a deployed service member,
Address it to “Dear hero.”

You can thank them, tell them what you’re proud of, describe your life here, share your family’s military history, tell them that you’re praying for them.
No proselytizing, please.
